On Foreign Exchanges

LONDON, September 21.—Money was quiet and plentiful on the market to-day and discounts were firmer. The Stock Exchange continues dull, with some irregularity in gilt-edge securities, which were affected by the prospects of higher discount rates in connection with the foreign gold demand. Home rails hardened on investment buying. Copper shares started well and closed easy on realization. Kaffir shares were strong, but foreign bonds sagged.

American securities opened generally high, the copper and steel shares loading the advance. Later the market reacted slightly, but at noon was steady, with prices ranging from three-eighths
